Barnett Millworks is pleased to announce its latest line of specialty doors for the beautiful Gulf South region. The Mobile Bay series is a line of finely crafted exterior mahogany doors from Lemieux Doors Inc.

Lemieux Doors are known for their innovative and high quality products. Would you expect anything less from Barnett?

Mahogany is the fastest-growing species in the building industry, according to Architectural Digest. Builders and contractors alike have anxiously been looking for an alternative to outdated designs. Homeowners want curb appeal designs to separate their home from everyone else's.

Barnett's new line of doors meets the needs, uniting beauty, strength, and the long lasting and timeless charm that is a long-standing Southern tradition. Please contact us to discuss which design best suits your needs.

Our mahogany doors and sidelights are the best in the industry. Here's why:

- Engineered stiles for strength
- Mortise and tenon construction for strength and stability
- 1 1/8" thick panels for elegance and increased stability
- All panels are guaranteed split proof
- Available in special widths and/or heights
- Most styles and standard sizes are in stock...no waiting
- Backed by Barnett Millworks' 60 year reputation
- Full one year warranty
